Description

Cascade Forest room spray will transport you to the lush forests of the Pacific Northwest, where giant Western Mountain Fir and Pine branches grow at high elevations, their branches reaching into some of the freshest air on earth. A clean, quick solution to many household needs, our Cascade Forest room spray is an all-natural replacement for more chemical heavy odor eliminators. Use it to enliven a room, on linens, on upholstery, anywhere that may need a little reviving. When you can't get out there, bring nature home.

Application: Shake well. Spray into the air to freshen up any room or directly onto fabric, blankets, linen etc. (1-2 sprays).
